

Strategic Planning Workshop 1

HIV/AIDS and Substance Use, Misuse, Addiction: Basic Science

November 9, 2018

Neuroscience Center (NSC), Room 3103

6001 Executive Boulevard

Rockville, MD 20852

Purpose: The National Institute on Drug Abuse (NIDA) AIDS Research Program (ARP) mission is to advance research at the intersection of HIV and substance use, misuse, and addiction with the potential to better prevent, diagnose, treat, and cure HIV and Substance Use Disorders (SUD). The NIDA ARP is committed to ensuring the institute has an innovative scientific strategic plan addressing high priority HIV/AIDS research questions. The goal of this workshop is to gather insights from leaders in HIV and substance use research including identifying high impact research questions, scientific and technological innovations, and new opportunities for scientific collaboration. This information will contribute to the ideas that will be incorporated into a scientific strategic plan to guide HIV/AIDS and substance use research activities over the next 5 years.

Format: The workshop will include four different sessions each focused on NIH HIV/AIDS Research Priorities relevant to NIDA's scientific portfolio. Each session will begin with an overview provided by two assigned panel members. Following this, all meeting participants will engage in discussions relevant to the session topic. The session will conclude with a 15-minute summary provided by an assigned panel member.

Discussion Framework:

- What key scientific advances have been made in recent years in areas relevant to the session?
- What are the major research gaps?
- How to leverage new technologies and opportunities in SUD research to accelerate advances in HIV research and vice versa?
- What are the three most important topics that are of highest priority and why?
- What are some innovative ideas to engage young investigators into research at the intersection of HIV and substance use, misuse, and addiction?

AGENDA

- 9:00 AM      Welcome, Introductions, and Opening Remarks
Opening Remarks (15 minutes)
Nora Volkow, Director, National Institute on Drug Abuse
- Overview of NIDA-AIDS Research (15 minutes)
Redonna Chandler, Director, AIDS Research Program
Vasundhara Varthakavi, Associate Director, AIDS Research Program
- 9:30 AM      NIDA HIV/AIDS Basic Science Program Overview
Rita Valentino, Director, Division of Neuroscience and Behavior (15 minutes)
Brandon Harvey, Intramural Research Program (15 minutes)
- 10:00 AM      Session 1 – Immune Mechanisms, Biomarkers, and Animal models
Session Overview
Joan Berman, Albert Einstein University (10 minutes)
Kurt Hauser, Virginia Commonwealth University (10 minutes)
- Moderated Discussion (40 minutes)
- Summary and Session Closeout (15 minutes)
Michal Toborek, University of Miami
Linda Chang, University of Maryland
- 11:15 AM      Break
- 11:30 AM      Session 2 – Pathogenesis, Microbiome, and Therapies
Session Overview
Nikki Klatt, University of Miami (10 minutes)
Shilpa Buch, University of Nebraska Medical Center (10 minutes)
- Moderated Discussion (40 minutes)
- Summary and Session Closeout (15 minutes)
David Volsky, Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai
- 12:45 PM      Lunch (Onsite Box lunch)

1:45 PM

Session 3: Research Towards HIV Cure

Session Overview

Kevin Morris, Beckman Research Institute/City of Hope (10 minutes)

David Volsky, Mount Sinai Medical School (10 minutes)

Moderated Discussion (40 minutes)

Summary and Session Closeout (15 minutes)

Lishomwa Ndhlovu, University of Hawaii at Honolulu

Avindra Nath, National Institute of Neurological Disorders and Stroke (NINDS)

3:00 PM

Break

3:15 PM

Session 4: HIV-Associated Comorbidities, Co-infections, and Complications

Session Overview

Avindra Nath, National Institute of Neurological Disorders and Stroke (10 minutes)

Dana Gabuzda, Harvard Medical School (10 minutes)

Moderated Discussion (40 minutes)

Summary and Session Closeout (15 minutes)

Norman Haughey, Johns Hopkins University

Joan Berman, Albert Einstein University

4:30 PM

Group Discussion:

- Collaborations (25 minutes)

Moderator: Jeymohan Joseph, National Institute of Mental Health

- Training the Next Generation of Scientists (20 minutes)

Moderator: Shilpa Buch, University of Nebraska Medical Center

5:15 PM

Summary and Closing Remarks (15 minutes)

5:30 PM

Meeting Adjourns

Strategic Planning Workshop 2

HIV/AIDS and Substance Use, Misuse, Addiction: Clinical, Translational, and Epidemiology Research

November 14, 2018

Neuroscience Center (NSC), Rooms A1/A2

Purpose: The National Institute on Drug Abuse (NIDA) AIDS Research Program (ARP) mission is to advance research at the intersection of HIV and substance use, misuse, and addiction with the potential to better prevent, diagnose, treat, and cure HIV and Substance Use Disorders (SUD). The NIDA ARP is committed to ensuring the institute has an innovative scientific strategic plan addressing high priority HIV/AIDS research questions. The goal of this workshop is to gather insights from leaders in HIV and substance use research including identifying high impact research questions, scientific and technological innovations, and new opportunities for scientific collaboration. This information will contribute to the ideas that will be incorporated into a scientific strategic plan to guide HIV/AIDS and substance use research activities over the next 5 years.

Format: The workshop will include four different sessions each focused on NIH HIV/AIDS Research Priorities relevant to NIDA's scientific portfolio. Each session will begin with an overview provided by two assigned panel members. Following this, all meeting participants will engage in discussions relevant to the session topic. The session will conclude with a 15-minute summary provided by an assigned panel member.

Discussion Framework:

- What scientific advances have been made in recent years in key research areas relevant to the session topic?
- What are the major research gaps?
- What are new technologies and opportunities available in SUD research that can be leveraged in accelerating advances in HIV research and vice versa?
- What are the three most important topics that are of highest priority and why?
- What are some innovative ideas to engage young investigators into research at the intersection of HIV and substance use, misuse, and addiction?
